

The Friends of the Froth Blowers and the Pub History Society jointly present their annual social event

The Third Brum Trudge

Saturday 17th March

An outing to some favourite Birmingham's pubs

Our starting point is the Post Office Vaults, 84 New Street, B2 4BA. We will meet here at 1200 before moving on at 1230 to.....

Stop 2 [12:45 – 13:15]. The Old Fox, 54-56, Hurst St

Stop 3 [13:30 – 14:00]. The Lamp, 257 Barford Street

Stop 4 [14:30 – 15:00]. The Spotted Dog, Warwick Street

Stop 5 [15:00 – 15:45] The Old Crown, High Street, Deritend

Stop 6 [16:00 – 16:30] The White Swan, 276, Bradford St, Digbeth

Stop 7 [16:45 – 17:15] The Anchor, 308 Bradford Street,

Returning to the town centre via the Bullring Shopping Centre, past the Burlington Hotel, and up New Street into Bennetts Hill to –

Stop 8 [17:45 – 18:30] The Wellington

Contacts on the day are:-

Dave Woodhead 07963 986815 or Steve Williams 0775 6066 503

R.S.V.P to steve@pubhistorysociety.co.uk

The Frothblower's anthem 'The more we are together' may possibly be sung sometime during the day in an incoherent manner (participation not compulsory)

All Welcome (especially those who can't sing!)